The Trustees reported that there was basically good response from the citizens regarding the road repair. The Trustee's also discussed the paved portion of several road ends that will also need to be repaved. Some are better than others with Bell Church probably needing the most work.

The Clerk announced that our next meeting would be our Budget Hearing for the year 1989. He has already delivered to the Utica Herald the public notice which will appear in the next issue of the Herald.

Mr. Wince moved that the meeting be adjourned, seconded by Mr. Hull. Vote unanimous.
