Phillip M. Shaw
Phillip M. Shaw, Clerk

1. The Board discussed advertising the public meeting on the Dry Creek Gravel in-stream mining at the St. Louisville Community Building on the 20th of December. The Trustees will advertise for this meeting one time in the Newark Advocate.
2. The Board instructed the Clerk to write a check for the Board's local and state dues to the Township Association.
3. The Board discussed trying to patch holes in the pads before the end of the year.
4. The Board will apply for seven stop signs through the County Engineer (Fed. 402 Fund).
5. The Board discussed the Children Playing sign on Ginger Hill Road. The Trustees reported that a sign of this type is not legal, but they will look into getting some type of sign that will possibly make motorists aware that children are in the area.
